Dear Judge Stein:

We represent Fred Daibes in connection with the above-referenced case. We write with the consent of the government (and without objection from Pretrial services) to respectfully request a brief extension of the time within which Mr. Daibes must meet one particular condition of his bail. Specifically, we have been working with the government on completing the paperwork necessary to post a particular property as security for Mr. Daibes' bond. Accordingly, and in order to complete and file the necessary forms, we respectfully
